

AEVI GENOMIC MEDICINE, INC.
COMPENSATION COMMITTEE CHARTER

1. PURPOSE

The purpose of the Compensation Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Aevi Genomic Medicine, Inc. (the “Company”) shall be to act on behalf of the Board in fulfilling the Board’s responsibilities to oversee the Company’s compensation policies, plans and programs, and to review and determine the compensation to be paid to the Company’s officers and directors, as well as, to the extent applicable, review and discuss with management the Company’s disclosures included in the Company’s annual reports on Form 10-K, registration statements, proxy statements or information statements and to prepare and review the Committee report on executive compensation included in the Company’s annual proxy statement in accordance with applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) in effect from time to time.

2. DUTIES

- 2.1. The Committee should be responsible for setting the Company’s overall compensation policy. In determining such policy, the Committee shall take into account all factors which it deems necessary. The objective of such policy shall be to ensure that members of the executive management of the Company are provided with appropriate incentives to encourage enhanced performance and are, in a fair and responsible manner, rewarded for their individual contributions to the success of the Company. The Committee shall also review the ongoing appropriateness and relevance of the compensation policy.
- 2.2. The Committee shall determine the compensation of the Company’s Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”), Chairman of the Board, directors, and other executive officers, as well as such other employees as designated by the Board. The Committee shall annually review and approve the Company’s goals and objectives relevant to the compensation of the CEO and shall evaluate the performance of the CEO in light of those goals and objectives. Based on such evaluation, the Committee shall have the authority to determine and approve the CEO’s compensation level (including base salary, incentive compensation and equity-based awards), whether for a new CEO, an existing CEO or as part of a termination package. In determining incentive compensation, the Committee shall consider, among other factors it deems appropriate from time to time, the Company’s performance and relative stockholder return, the value of similar incentive awards to chief executive officers at comparable companies, and the awards given to management in prior years. The CEO shall not be present during any voting or deliberations with respect to his or her compensation. In evaluating and determining CEO compensation, the Committee shall consider the results of the most recent stockholder advisory vote on executive compensation (“Say on Pay Vote”) required by Section 14A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”).

- 2.3. The Committee shall periodically review and shall have the authority to determine and approve, or review and recommend to the Board for approval if the Committee so elects, all other senior executive compensation, the total individual remuneration package of each senior executive including bonuses, incentive payments, share options or other share awards, severance arrangements, change-in-control benefits, and other forms of senior executive compensation. In evaluating and determining executive compensation, the Committee shall consider the results of the most recent Say on Pay Vote.
- 2.4. The Committee shall review and approve binding offer letters, employment agreements, severance arrangements, retirement arrangements, change in control agreements/provisions, indemnification agreements and any special or supplemental benefits for all executive officers of the Company, as well as any severance payments, termination payments or other payments or benefits proposed to be made to any executive officer of the Company at, following or in connection with retirement. The Committee should have the ability to adopt, amend, and terminate such agreements, arrangements, or plans.
- 2.5. In determining any such packages and arrangements described above, the Committee shall consider any relevant legal requirements, including, without limitation, if applicable, the rules and regulations of The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC (“NASDAQ”) and the requirements of the Exchange Act and the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, as well as the rules and regulations of the SEC promulgated thereunder, each as may be applicable.
- 2.6. The Committee shall approve the design of and determine targets for, any performance related pay schemes operated by the Company for executive and other officers, as well as such other employees as designated by the Board, and approve the total annual payments made under such schemes.
- 2.7. The Committee shall review the design of all incentive compensation plans and equity-based plans for approval by the Board and stockholders and for any such plans, administer such plans with such authority and powers as are set forth in the respective instruments establishing such plans, including determining each year whether awards will be made and, if so, the overall amount of such awards, the individual awards to executive and non-executive directors, executive officers and other senior executives, as well as such other employees as designated by the Board, and the performance targets to be used.
- 2.8. The Committee shall:
- (a) oversee, review and make recommendations to the Board regarding all employee benefits structures throughout the Company;
 - (b) review the Company’s incentive compensation arrangements to determine whether they encourage excessive risk-taking, to review and discuss at least annually the relationship between risk management policies and practices and compensation, and to evaluate compensation policies and practices that could mitigate any such risk; and

- (c) establish the policy for authorizing expense reimbursements from the directors and the senior executives of the Company, including the CEO.

- 2.9. The Committee shall coordinate closely with the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board in relation to the remuneration to be offered to any new director. The Committee shall annually review and recommend to the Board all matters pertaining to fees, retainers and any other form of compensation paid to directors for Board and any committee service. The Board shall approve any such recommendation prior to its implementation.
- 2.10. To the extent required by applicable SEC rules, the Committee shall review and discuss the “Compensation Discussion and Analysis” pursuant to Item 402 of Regulation S-K of the SEC with senior management and recommend to the Board, based on this review, whether the Compensation Disclosure and Analysis should be included in the Company’s annual proxy statement or annual report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC and shall prepare an annual report of the Committee on executive officer compensation for inclusion in the Company’s annual proxy statement or annual report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC.
- 2.11. In consultation with management, the Committee shall oversee regulatory compliance with respect to compensation matters, including overseeing the Company’s policies on structuring compensation programs to preserve tax deductibility, and, as and when required, establishing performance goals and verifying that performance goals have been attained for purposes of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (“Section 162(m)”).
- 2.12. The Committee shall oversee the Company’s compliance with the SEC’s rules and regulations regarding stockholder approval of certain executive compensation matters, including advisory votes on executive compensation and the frequency of such votes, and the requirements under the listing rules of NASDAQ that, with limited exceptions, stockholders approve the equity compensation plans
- 2.13. The Committee shall consider such other matters as may be requested by the Board.

3. RESOURCES; AUTHORITY; ACCESS TO RECORDS

- 3.1. The Committee may form and delegate authority and responsibilities to any subcommittee or any member of the Committee for any purpose that the Committee deems appropriate.
- 3.2. The Committee may, in its sole discretion, retain or obtain the advice of any compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser as it determines appropriate to assist in the performance of its functions, or to advise or inform the Committee, including sole authority to terminate the engagement of any such compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser. The Committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of any compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser retained by it. The Company shall provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of reasonable compensation to any such compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser retained by the Committee. However, the Committee shall not be required to implement or act consistently with the advice or recommendations of its compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser and the authority granted in this charter (the “Charter”) shall not affect the ability or obligation of the Committee to exercise its own judgment in fulfillment of its duties under this Charter.

- 3.3. The Committee is authorized to seek any information it requires from any employee, director, adviser or consultant of the Company and all such employees, directors, advisers and consultants will be directed by the Company to cooperate with any request made by the Committee. In carrying out its duties and responsibilities, the Committee shall have full access to any relevant records, facilities and employees of the Company and may retain experts and outside consultants to advise the Committee.
- 3.4. In retaining or seeking advice from compensation consultants, legal counsel and other advisers (other than the Company’s in-house counsel), the Committee must take into consideration the factors specified in NASDAQ Marketplace Listing Rule 5605(d)(3) (or any successor rule) and any other relevant factors related to the independence of such compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser. The Committee may retain, or receive advice from, any compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser it prefers, including ones that are not independent, after considering such factors. The Committee is not required to assess the independence of any compensation consultant or other adviser that acts in a role limited to consulting on any broad-based plan that does not discriminate in scope, terms or operation in favor of executive officers or directors and that is generally available to all salaried employees or providing information that is not customized for a particular company or that is customized based on parameters that are not developed by the consultant or adviser, and about which the consultant or adviser does not provide advice.
- 3.5. The Committee shall evaluate whether any compensation consultant retained or to be retained by it has any conflict of interest in accordance with Item 407(e)(3)(iv) of Regulation S-K.
- 3.6. Any communications between the Committee and legal counsel in the course of obtaining legal advice will be considered privileged communications of the Company and the Committee will take all necessary steps to preserve the privileged nature of those communications.

4. MEMBERSHIP

- 4.1. The Committee shall consist of a minimum of two members appointed by the Board, which Committee members are also members of the Board. The Committee shall appoint one of its members to act as the Chairman of the Committee, provided that the Chairman of the Committee shall not be the Chairman of the Board. Members of the Committee shall serve at the discretion of the Board.
- 4.2. The Committee will be composed solely of “independent directors,” as required by the rules and requirements of the Exchange Act, any rules and regulations promulgated thereunder by the SEC and the listing rules of NASDAQ, subject to any phase-in provisions, exceptions and cure period rules. Additionally, members of the Committee shall qualify as “non-employee directors” for purposes of Rule 16-3 under the Exchange Act and as an “outside director” within the meaning of Section 162(m).

5. ATTENDANCE AT MEETINGS

- 5.1. The Committee will meet in person or telephonically at least three times per year at a time and place determined by the Chairman of the Committee, with further meetings to occur, or actions to be taken by unanimous written consent, when deemed necessary or desirable by the Committee or the Chairman of the Committee.
- 5.2. Other directors, officers and external advisers may be invited to attend all or part of any meeting as and when considered appropriate by the Committee.
- 5.3. Notices for meetings of the Committee shall be given in the same manner as provided in the Company’s By-laws (as may be amended, modified or replaced from time to time, the “By-laws”) for notices to be given with respect to meetings of the Board.
- 5.4. At each meeting, the Committee shall appoint a member of the Committee or other invited guest to act as the secretary of the Committee. The secretary shall record the proceedings and resolutions of the meetings of the Committee, including recording the names of those present and in attendance. Draft minutes of each meeting shall be circulated to all members of the Committee. On finalization and signature, the minutes of each meeting shall be submitted to the Board as a formal record of the decisions of the Committee on behalf of the Board.
- 5.5. Each member of the Committee shall have one vote which may be cast on matters considered at the meeting. Votes can only be cast by members attending (in person or telephonically) a meeting of the Committee. A quorum shall be any two members of the Committee, except that where, by reason of personal interest, a member of the Committee is not entitled to vote, the quorum shall be the remaining member(s) of the Committee. Actions by the Committee may be taken by unanimous written consent in the same manner as provided in the By-laws for written consents by the Board or by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the members present (in person or by telephone conference call) at a meeting at which a quorum is present. If a matter that is considered by the Committee is one where a member of the Committee, either directly or indirectly, has a personal interest, that member shall not be permitted to vote on such matter.

6. GENERAL MATTERS

- 6.1. The Chairman of the Committee shall make himself available at each annual meeting of the stockholders of the Company to answer questions concerning the Committee's work during the preceding year.
- 6.2. The Committee shall, at least once a year, review its own performance and the adequacy of this Charter to ensure that the Committee is operating at maximum effectiveness and recommend any changes the Committee considers necessary to the Board for approval.
- 6.3. Any act of the Committee in accordance with this Charter with respect to any duty delegated to it hereunder shall be deemed to be an act of the Board with respect to such matter without the need for any additional action or approval by the Board, except to the extent such authority is expressly limited by the Board.
- 6.4. This Charter was adopted by the Board of Directors and is effective as of June 14, 2017 and supersedes and replaces any prior charter or committee terms relating to compensation issues.
